FORWARD

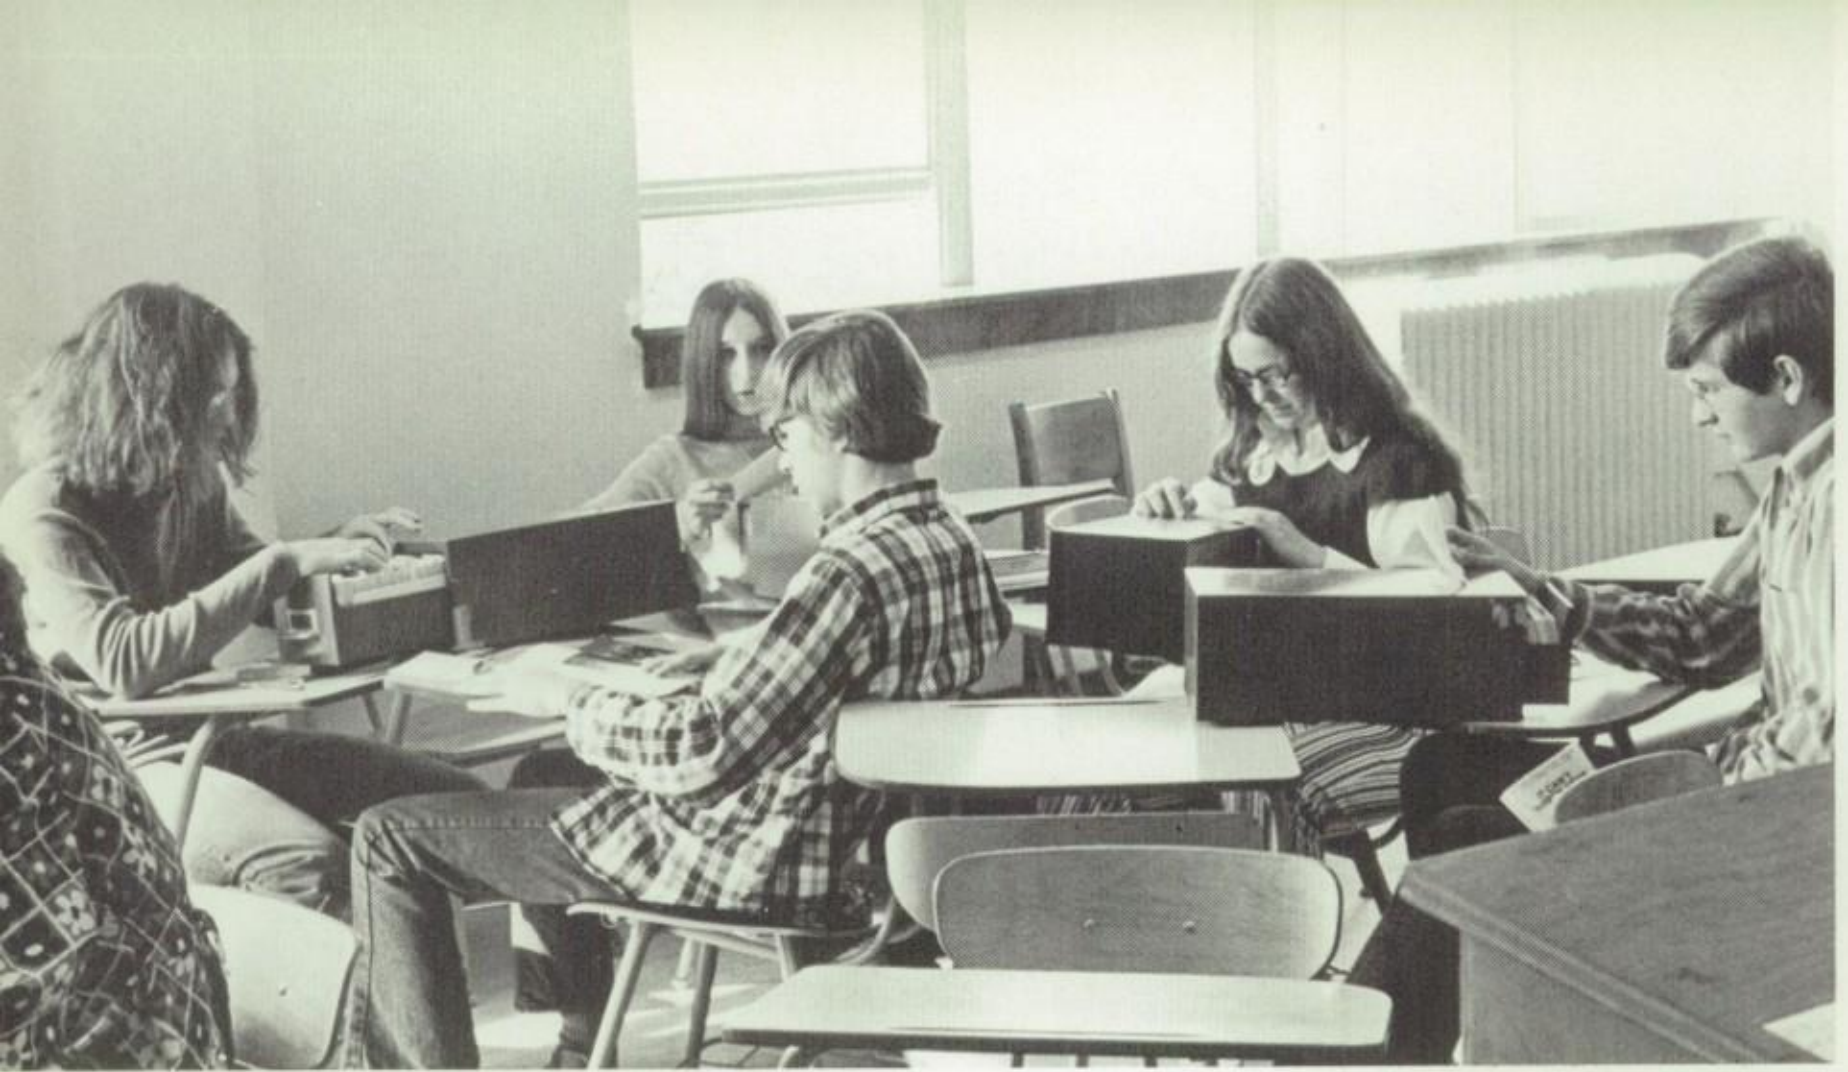

After experiencing all the excitement, joys, frustrations and troubles we have encountered in the past few years; still our hearts will always hold a place for them.

Starting as a freshman, the whole process looked like a long struggle; still the year was soon over and we were advancing more rapidly toward the final year. Activities shortened the years even more such as homecoming festivities, declam, debate, plays, sports, snowball, sadyhawkins, and prom. Finally, the years are climaxed by the receiving of our diplomas and walking the halls of P.H.S. for the last time.

Although each will go on and venture into his own seperate world, we will all look back and see Pipestone High School years, "As We Remember Them."

SENIOR GIRLS TEA

Mr. Erich Fuhrmannek from the Pipestone Vocational School was the guest speaker at the annual Senior Girl's Tea. Mr. Fuhrmannek spoke to the girls about Tailoring. The event, sponsored by the American Association of University Women was held at St. Leo's Catholic Church. The class colors, light and dark blue were the decorations on the tea cakes and serving tables. Laurel Clasen and Nancy Barck, class officers, led the serving lines.

This year, twenty-one seniors were recognized by the National Honor Society. To be eligible, each member must be in the upper one-third of his class and display abilities of leadership, scholarship, service, and character. Students are elected by members of the senior high faculty. The ceremony was conducted by Junior class officers. Father Halloran was the guest speaker.

HOMECOMING 1973

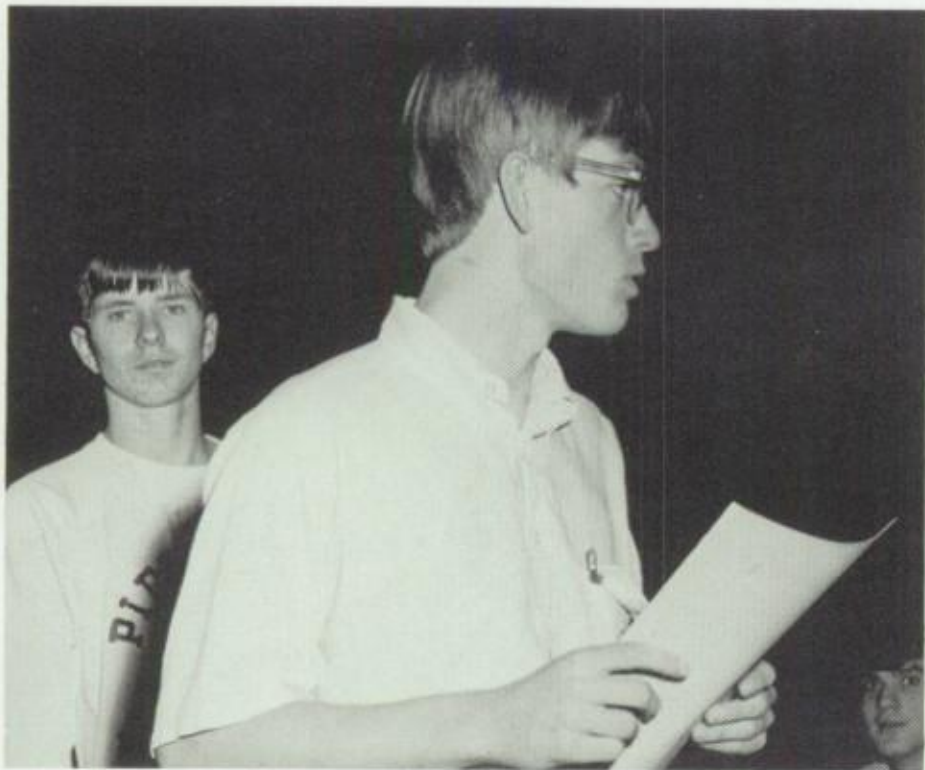

Under the theme "Saturday in the Park", Homecoming festivities began October 12, with coronation. LuAnn Erickson, Barb Hauptert, Rhonda Jones, Gloria Kozlowski, and Sue Thomsen were the lovely candidates. The excitement rose to a climax when the 1971 Queen, Annette Brockberg, placed the roses into the arms of the new Queen, Rhonda Jones. Following coronation, Queen Rhonda lit the traditional bonfire.

On Friday night, October 13, the Arrows battled the Luverne Cards for the battle axe as well as for the Homecoming game. Although they tried their hardest, the Arrows fell to the Cards in a 28 to 12 loss.

Homecoming wasn't over, however, as the dance took place Saturday night in the gym. "Ride" provided music for an enchanting evening. At midnight the dance ended and everyone departed with fond memories of Homecoming '72.

1-ACT

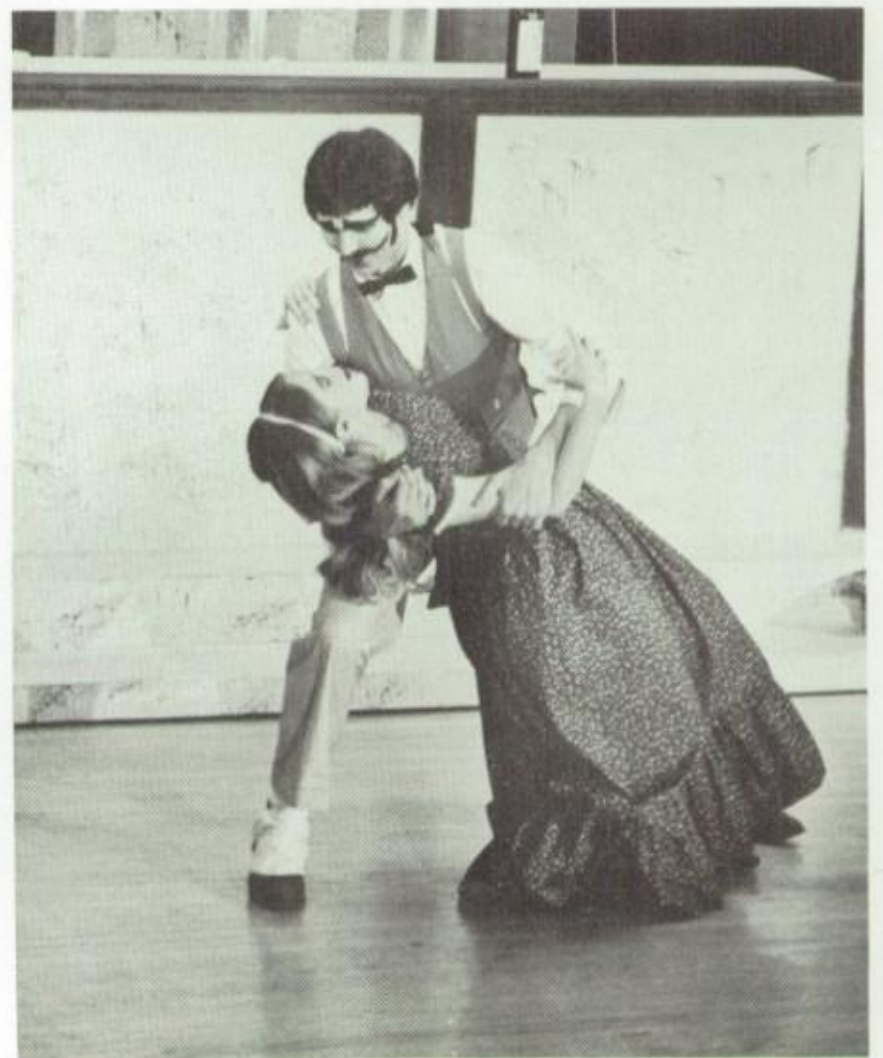

This year brought a change in the District 8 One-Act Play Contest. For many years, it has been judged by only one judge. Instead, this year, there were three judges.

"The Sandbox" was given by Pipestone. The cast was made up of Steve Goodspeed as The Young Man, Kathie Drengson as Mommy, Paul Gillin as Daddy, Cindy Swanson as Grandma, and Tony Stager as The Musician. They received three A ratings from the judges.

"The Interview", given by Slayton, received the first place trophy.

ADrift IN NEW YORK

The 1972 Spring play was "Adrift in New York" or "Her First False Step".

This is the story of a hero being falsely accused of stealing a great deal of money. The action took place in dear Nellie's farm home, and also in New York. It ended happily, with the villian getting caught in the end.

This melodrama had a very large cast, plus a chorus line of the cheerleaders, who were can-can dancers. Two quartettes, made up of Gail Schroyer, Beva Smith, Pam Moffit, Annette Brockberg, Greg O'Connor, Mark Erickson, Jeff Fellman, and Glen Cook, provided the musical entertainment. The cast was made up of: Kathi Westphal, Paul Backlund, Linette Barclay, Bev Eischens, Mike Dagel, Joe Keyes, Bill Tepley, Jane Yseth, Cindy Swanson, Steve Goodspeed, Bill Brockberg, Mark Pandiscio, Tony Stager, Dave Miller, and Deb Paulsen.

PLAY
“HILLBILLY COURTSHIP”

The Fall Play "Hillbilly Courtship" under the direction of James Adams was presented Nov. 16 and 17 bringing two full houses. The cast included 26 Junior and Senior High students.

This year the band, led by Mr. Opland, had a busy and eventful year.

In September, at the Tri-State Band Festival, the band came home with three trophies: one for an A-rating on field performance, the best over-all trophy on field performance, and the Sweepstakes Trophy. This last trophy was given for best over all for field and marching performance. It is a traveling trophy, but if it is won for three consecutive years, the band will get to keep it.

They also marched in the Viking Day Parade at Sioux Falls.

They gave a Mid-Winter, Spring and Pop Concert. One of the highlights of the Mid-Winter Concert was "Water Music Suite", which featured the French horns.

Besides the regular events, the band also went to St. Olaf College to play as a guest band. A few selected members were to play along with the St. Olaf Band, which is directed by "Mighty" Johnson.

Part of the band also provided the musical accompaniment for the musical "Camelot".

Congratulations on a very productive year.

BAND RECEIVES "A" RATING AT TRI-STATE FESTIVAL

The Pipestone band had a very successful marching season this year. After months of hard practice and performing, the band was proud when it was rewarded 3 out of the 4 possible trophies at the Luverne Tri-State Festival. The honors were: an "A" rating for the field exercise, and best field performance, along with the traveling trophy for "The best all around band."

September may seem to be a strange time to be thinking about Christmas, but for Mr. Opland and the Mixed Chorus, it's a time of busy preparation for Vespers, and their appearance on television.

In February, the Chorus went to sing at M. M. E. A. in Minneapolis.

Many long hours were spent working towards star-ratings at contest.

The year came to a close, with the senior members of the Mixed Chorus bidding farewell to the graduating class of 1973.

Each month a staff of dedicated students work late into the night while preparing the the latest issue of the Smoke Signal. Under the supervision of Mr. Willard Marwitz, the paper maintained a high standard of journalism. The paper informs the students and faculty of school activities, opinions, and issues of national importance.

The Smoke Signal attempts to broaden the minds of its readers by presenting a great variety of articles.

The paper is co-edited by Steve Goodspeed and Mary Giles.

 Ham of the Year---Mike Dagel
 Best Student Director---Kathy Ackman

Thirteen people were initiated into Thespians at the end of the 1972 school year. At the banquet, the officers for the 72-73 year were elected. Trophies were also awarded to a few people for the outstanding job they had done during the year.

Mr. Adams and Mr. Marwitz are the co-advisors for the organization.

During the year, the members receive a copy of the Dramatics magazine each month.

This year, there were no student directed one-acts, because of a lack of time to work on them. Instead, time, energy, and talent were spent working on the spring musical "Camelot."

S. Benson, Mr. Buchanan, A. Bundlie, B. Carlson, W. Wiersma, K. Swanson, J. Yseth, M. Teas, D. Halbur. NOT PICTURED: E. O'Connor, P. Gillin.

This years debate topic was on financing elementary and secondary education. The teams spent many a late Thursday night before a tournament revising and improving their plan. Many hours were also spent doing research and typing debate cards. The debators gave up almost all of their Friday nights and Saturdays to participate in the tournaments. They had a very challenging season, but they stood up to it well.

7TH GRADE FOOTBALL

Under head coach Bob Nangle and assistant coaches Eldy Dahl and Con Aubert, the Arrows established a season record of three wins and six losses.

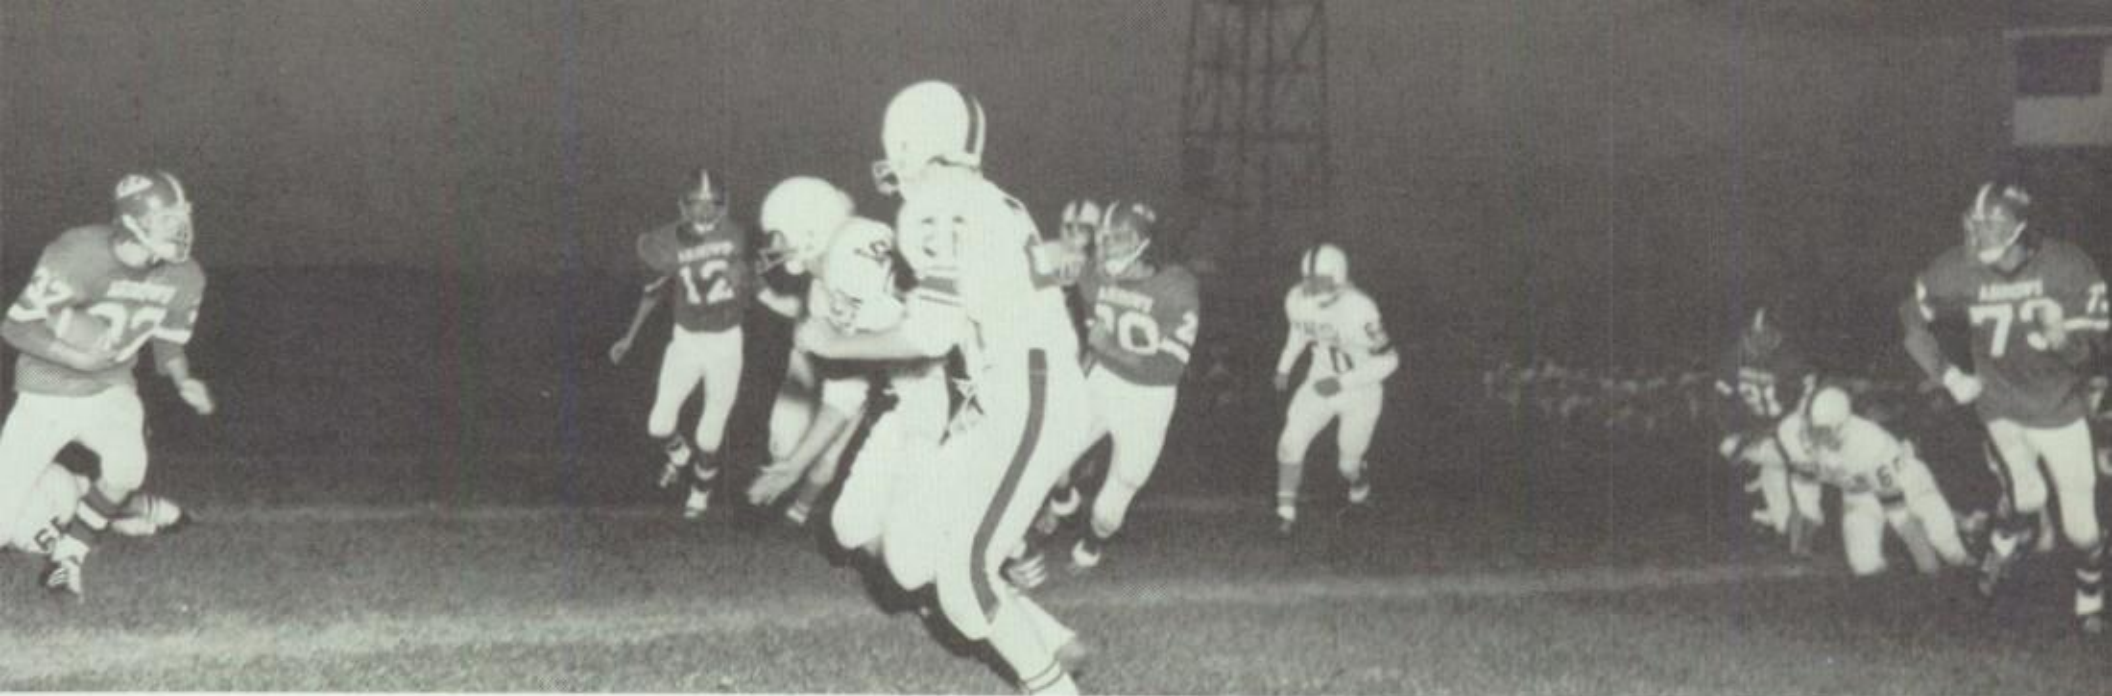

It was a big disappointment to lose the right to keep the "Battle Axe" in Pipestone.

Jeff Brockberg and Tom Newgard were named to the Footballs All-Conference Team.
